A Dog's Day Afternoon

If stuffy dog shows aren't your doggie's bag, then the Atlanta Dog Expo will be his cup of tea. The Expo is more of a dog celebration than a formal dog show. For you and your family's canine representative, there will be a whole pack of vets, dog nutritionists, kennel owners, grooming specialists and dog experts ready to answer any questions you may have about your pet.

And best of all, you can show off your dog's special look and hidden talents. Informal judging will tell us who's tops in five breed categories- collie, boxer, poodle, cocker spaniel and of course, the highly entertaining "anything-goes" division.

So for a really fun dog show where everyone barks the same language, the Civic Center is the place to be on Saturday, May 24. The festivities run from noon to 5 p.m., and admission is $3, $1 for children under 12. To enter your pet in the judging, there's a $10 fee. Get your tickets at the Civic Center and most vet and pet stores.

Treat you and your pet to a tail-wagging good time.
